STUDENT HIGHLIGHT

Alice Hu is a rising 7th grader at Josiah Quincy Upper School. She also attends Kwong Kow Chinese School and has lived in the Boston Chinatown neighborhood her whole life. In her letter to the place that she and her family call home, she shares her appreciation of the wonderful community around her.

Alice Hu今年在昆西中學讀七年級，她同時也是中華廣教學校課餘班的學生。Alice從小到大都住在波士頓唐人街。Alice的信中表達了對周圍社區的感激之情，以及美好的回憶。

"My childhood was the best, because I spent it here. Friends playing together, birds chirping, people laughing — what's not to love? Organizations like KKCS are here. KKCS: a supportive place. Kind, open minded people all around." - Alice Hu, Love Letter to Chinatown

Alice participated the Open Mic event hosted by ACDC (Asian Community Development Corporation) at Hudson Street Stoop of One Greenway park. The community event selected young artists to showcase their stories and talents under the public art installation "Storytell & Sway". Alice worked on her writing for many weeks with the help and guidance from her teacher Robert Chin during summer program.

Alice 獲選代表中華廣教學校於「唐人街我想對你說.....」活動中發表她寫給唐人街的情書。她與廣教學校老師陳朗維花費了數週的時間寫作這封信，字裡行間透露出對於唐人街的深厚情感。若您有興趣欣賞她的演出，請掃描二維碼觀賞。

"If Chinatown were a person, they'd be social, kind, creative, cool, and unique, like a big sibling. They would also be a VERY good cook. It's almost certain that Chinatown would be very popular, serving the best meals at family dinners." -Alice Hu, Love Letter to Chinatown
